Citrus County John Brandon

Author Lauren Groff says "John Brandon is a great young writer who can -- and probably will -- do just about anything". My mind did a I was in Citrus County during my last visit to Florida ... so when I saw this small paperback on sale for $5 through McSweeney's Publishing....(a fan of this publishing company created by Dave Eggers anyway)...

Citrus County by John Brandon - Goodreads

"With Citrus County John Brandon joins the ranks of writers like Denis Johnson, Joy Williams, Mary Robison and Tom Drury, writers whose wild flights feel more likely than a heap of what we've come to expect from literature, by calmly reminding us that the world is far more startling than most fiction is. He subverts the expectations of an adolescent novel by staying true to the wild incongruities of adolescence, and subverts the expectations of a crime novel by giving us people who are ...
