Teachers have a way of getting the message across with great clarity, they have a gift of knowing where people are at and can take them from there to a point of understanding. The prophet brings the new revelation which is then expounded by the Teacher, and the Pastor sees it built into people's lives.

Perhaps one of the reasons that the Book of Revelation is so mysterious, so confusing, or so fearsome, is that we don't look at it as a loving, personal message from God. We focus on its meaning for the world and try to interpret it as a warning about a destructive and inevitable end. We search for clues about
